LIQUOR SELLERS INDICTED.

Alleged Violators of Local Option

Law in Virginia. IRVINGTON, Va., At the recent special grand jury in Lancaster county indictments were brought in against nine persous for selling liquor in the county. More than three years ago local option was carried in this county by a large majority and since then speakeasies have been springing up in places where barrooms ould never have been thought of. Several indictments have been brought in before fais, but the small fines imposed seemed to but add fuel to the fames and the sales of whichy has gone on despite the wishes of the majority of the citizens.

Northumberiand county recently set the pace for Lancaster by imposing a fine of $290 and costs for a violation of the local option laws, and the consensus of opinion here now is that this county will make the citizens are up in arms and are demanding a fair and impartial trial. Much interest centres in these cases, not only in Lan-caster county, but throughout the North-

Mrs. Lindsay, wife of Senator Lindsay, vill not receive today, but will be at home next Thursday, February 7.

Mrs. Charles H. Bates will not be at home tomorrow.

The friends of Mrs. Frank B. Lord will regret to learn of her critical illness. The young married people of the dan-ing world, together with its belles and cavaliers, made up the sixty couples who danced last night at Masonic Temple. Mrs. Miles was the hostess of the evening and Mr. Olmsted led the cotillion. The favors made a pretty show, there being among the collection fancy bags, whips, bells, flowers, and tinsel decorations suspended from gaily colored rib-

The dance was under the direction of Mr. John Poor, Mr. Charles H. Campbell, Miss Myer, Miss Owen, and Miss Merrim, and the 120 dancers represent fashionable contingent of the official and social world.

Senator and Mrs. Elkins gave a dinner ast night to Miss Jones, daughter of Senator J. P. Jones, and Miss Merriam Grant, who is spending the season with her grandmother, Mrs. U. S. Grant. The uests were young people.

Mr. John Joy Edson, the President of the Columbian Allumni Association, and Mrs. Edson gave a reception last night at their residence, 1324 Sixteenth Street, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The drawing room was artistically decrated in pink flowers and palms, while the additional parlors and dining room e floral color was expressed in crimson Mrs. Edson received in grey satin bro-aded in blue with a bertha of duchess ace, and Miss Edson wore a pretty gown pale blue crepe de chine. and Mrs. Edson were Prof. and Mrs.

The annual business meeting of the lumni association preceded the reception, t which the members and their families were the only guests.

Mrs. Hearst entertained last night at a dinner of twenty-four covers. Mrs. and Miss Blount, of "The Oaks," will receive this afternoon for the last time this season. Send for trial bottle free.

A BULL FIGHT AT NICE. Six Animals Furnish Excitement for only sufferers.

postponed until yesterday. The seats were crowded. A majority of the spectators were Frenchmen, who became very excited as the fight went on. The expensive seats were largely occupied by English visitors, in mourning for Queen Victoria. Six bulls were let into the arena. One of them knocked a man down, but the other toreadors prevented the animal from goring him. The cleverest torcador was a youth of fifteen years, who displayed marvelous agility in dodging.

The bulls frequently tried to leap the barrier, and this caused wild excitement. One horse was brought into the arena, Grip

OLD PEOPLE MADE YOUNG.

J. C. Sherman, the veteran editor of the "Vermontville (Mich.) Echo," has discovered the remarkable secret of keeping old people young. For years he has avoided nervousness, sleepiessness, indigestion, heart trouble, constipation, and rheumatism by using Electric Bitters, and he writes: "It can't be praised too highly. It gently stime lates the kidneys, tones the stomach, aids digestion, and gives a splendid appetite. It has worked wonders for my wife and me. It's a marvelous remedy for old people's complaints."
